

2023
International
Training Course on “Disaster Risk
Management of Cultural Heritage”
Internship
Announcement

You can learn knowledge about disaster mitigation in Kyoto through the subject of how cultural heritage and heritage areas are preserved and rehabilitated after disasters.

Briefing Session

【When】① June 16(Fri.), 2023, 18:10~19:00
 ② June 21(Wed.), 2023, 18:10~19:00

【Where】Online ZOOM
 (No reservation required)

<https://ritsumeai-ac-jp.zoom.us/j/95030430219?pwd=YlZ1aUhDZjg1S1VlUGI5eUg2clJxdz09>

Meeting ID: 950 3043 0219
 Passcord: 723671

~Outline of Implementation~

[Duration and Site]

Online Course : 14 August-1 September, 15:00~17:30(JST)
 ※Only on Mondays and Thursdays
 @ZOOM
 Onsite Course : 11-14 September, 9:00~18:00(JST)
 ※Every day except for 16 September
 @DMUCH, Kinugasa Campus
 (Visits to cultural heritage sites in Kyoto and the Kinki region are included in the training)

[Fee]

Free ※Responsible for own transportation costs

[Application Period]

29 May 2023 (Mon.)13:00– 26 June 2023 (Mon.)13:00

[Qualification and Condition]

- ① You must be at least a 4th-year undergraduate student or a 1st-year graduate student at Ritsumeikan University.
- ② Those who meet all the following application requirements
 - a) Attend all lectures and sites visits
 - b) Follow the instructions of your instructor
 - c) Work as a team with other students and trainees from abroad
 - d) Communicate in English proactively
- ③ Support the trainees research activities
- ④ Submit a report after the internship

[Application Method]

Submit Internship Application Form

Click Here For More Info

